

Accessibility Plan 2024-27

Target	Strategy	Outcome	Responsibility	Date	Achieved/Impact
Improving Access to the Curriculum
Ensure representation of positive role models with diverse protected characteristics	Audit and purchase of new stock to represent protected characters. Use of CBeebies Bedtime Stories with readers who are diverse. PHSE lessons address similarities and difference. Purchase Picture News and use weekly.	Children have a deeper understanding of protected characteristics improving tolerance and respect. Reduced use of any derogatory language.	VL/JA	April 2024
Enable pupils and parents to have working understanding of difference	Neurodiversity events Diversity Day PSHE curriculum-use of explicit, clear language Resources (as above)	Raised pupil and parent understanding of diversity. Reduced use of any derogatory language.	SHu/VL	Jul 2024
Ensure access to a broad and balanced curriculum enabling improved attainment for all pupils.	Use of evidence based targets interventions as part of APDR cycle. Adaptive teaching Fun Friday Purchase of medical aids for pupils with physical impairments	Improved pupil outcomes particularly for vulnerable pupils. Wider opportunities to improve life and first hand experiences.	SHu	Sept 2024
Develop parents understanding of additional needs, providing information	CAMHS family webinars Neurodiversity events Support staff to directly address any discriminatory attitudes	Parents will develop a deeper understanding of additional needs. Families will feel supported by school for their child with additional needs. Improved pupil outcomes.	SHu	April 2024

Accessibility Plan 2024-27

and signposting as required.	or behaviour (pupils/parents)
Improving Physical Access
Identify car parking space for disabled use		To benefit access for disabled staff and parents.	SG/JA	Jul 2024
Improving Delivery of Written Information
Extend the engagement of parents and other stakeholders with written communication from school	Continue to develop efficient and accessible communication with parents and stakeholders	Communication will be more readily available to all stakeholders.	SG/Office staff	Feb 2024	